

Firefighter McClary Released from Hospital

Thursday, June 05 2014 13:34 -

After spending almost 48 hours in the burn unit at MedStar, Firefighter Michael McClary was released from MedStar. His first stop was to the station to check in on the members that were there and to let them know he was OK. He also wanted a nice cold Arnold Palmer to drink. Firefighter McClary spend a couple of hours at the station before returning home where he will be forced to take it easy for the next few days.
