

The 2014 Riverdale Park Day is This Saturday

Thursday, October 02 2014 10:54 - Last Updated Thursday, October 02 2014 11:05

This Saturday October 4th 2014, the Riverdale Fire Department will be participating in the annual Riverdale Park Day hosted by the Town of Riverdale Park. This community event will feature fire prevention displays as well as hand outs from the fire department and police department. There will be live music, pony rides, games and events for kids of all ages. There will be local vendors that have their products for sale. And of course the members of the Riverdale Fire Department will have the grills going and selling out food.

So come on out to 5801 Riverside Drive just off of Nicholson St and Taylor road from noon till 5:00om for fun and entertainment.
